

Like A River Glorious

Frances R. Havergal, 1874

James Mountain, 1876

Like a riv - er Hid - den in the Ev - 'ry joy or

glor - ious
hol - low
tri - al

is God's per - fect
of his bless - ed
fall - eth from a -

peace,
hand,
bove,

o - ver all vic -
nev - er foe can traced up on our

to - rious
fol - low,
di - al

in its bright in -
nev - er trai - tor
by the Sun of

crease;
stand;
Love.

per - fect, yet it
not a surge of
We may trust him

flow - eth
wor - ry,
ful - ly

ful - ler ev - 'ry
not a shade of
all for us to

day,
care,
do;

per - fect, yet it
not a blast of
they who trust him

grow - eth
hur - ry,
whol - ly

deep - er all the
touch the spir - it
find him whol - ly

way.
there.
true.

Stayed up - on Je -
ho - vah,

hearts are ful - ly
blest,

REFRAIN

find - ing, as he
prom - ised,

per - fect peace and
rest.